TERMS OF SALE

1. This is an unrestricted Mail Bid Sale. All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Enter your bid by lot number. Please feel free to bid as much as you wish on each lot, with the realization that all bids will be treated as limits and all lots will be sold below those bids as competition dictates. Bids that are not entered in good faith or are deemed to be totally ridiculous will be refused at the cataloger's discretion.

2. Closing date for this sale is Tuesday, January 16, 1996 at 8:00 P.M. (EST). Faxes will not be accepted after 5:00 P.M. on the day of the sale.

3. Bidders who are unknown to us are requested to supply two (2) bank or trade references prior to the sale or submit a deposit equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of their total bid.

4. A ten percent (10%) Buyer's Fee will be added to each lot won. A packing charge of fifty cents per lot (mimimum $2.00) plus shipping charges also will be added.

5. TERMS: Cash or check, payable in U.S. funds. Payment is due upon notification of successful bids. Title to all lots remains with Function Associates until paid for in full. Delivery may be postponed until full payment is received, at the discretion of the cataloger.

6. Unsuccessful bidders will be notified by mail in a prompt manner. We recognize the importance of liquidity of funds and will return deposits on a priority basis.

7. A Prices Realized List will be mailed to each bidder. A copy of the prices realized may be ordered for delivery after the sale. The price is one dollar ($1.00) for those persons who are not bidders.

8. Mail Bid Sales are not approval sales. No lot may be returned without written authorization and this must be requested within three days after receipt of lots purchased.

9. All books are as described. Any errors or typographical mistakes will be happily corrected.

10. A Florida 7% Sales Tax will be added to all lots delivered within Florida, unless a valid resale number is on file with us.

11. The cataloger has attempted to describe the condition of each lot as to signs of wear. If no descriptor is noted, it may be assumed that the lot is in Fine(F) to Very Fine(VF) condition.

12. Telephone bids are accepted. If you so desire, you will be informed as to whether your first bid is a successful bid or not. A second bid may then be offered, but with the provision that this second bid will not be reduced as competition dictates.

13. Invoices are payable upon receipt and a late charge of $1.50 will be added to delinquent accounts.

"THE AMERICAN BOND DETECTOR"
"THE HISTORY OF ANCIENT AND MODERN COINAGE"

J61. HEATH,Laban-1871-"The American Bond Detector" and "The History Of Ancient And Modern Coinage"-Two volumes. The "Bond Detector" contains 37 pages of text and 22 plates of Treasury bonds. It is bound in deep-maroon cloth with an ornate gilt design on the cover. The size is oblong quarto. The "History Of Ancient And Modern Coinage" contains 48 pages of text and 9 plates of coins. This separate volume is bound in identical deep-maroon cloth with an ornate gilt design on the cover. Thus, this is a matched set. The dates on the title pages are also identical, with 1871 being shown as the year of printing. The copyright by N. George Ordway lists the 1869 date on both volumes. Condition is Near Mint on both and the plates are in excellent condition. The title page of the "Bond Detector" has become loose without damage. $4,500.00
(A minimum bid of $3,500.00 is required on this lot)

The cataloger wishes to thank Mr. Eric P. Newman, whose presentation of "Heath's Counterfeit Detectors" appears in the "American Numismatic Association Anthology"(1991), for his generous aid and interest in researching this 1871 publication by Laban Heath. Mr. Newman has also consented to allow the rather liberal paraphrasing of his work. A study of this paper is highly recommended.

THE HISTORY

After successfully promoting the sale of about 100,000 copies of his "Counterfeit Detector" in various editions since 1864, Laban Heath decided in 1869 to publish a book containing plates of genuine and counterfeit Treasury bonds and a section containing embossed plates of coins that were printed by a metallic process developed in Germany and used by J.Haehnlen of Philadelphia.Heath used the political clout of Nehemiah George Ordway, a minor politician in New Hampshire until he was appointed as Sergeant-At-Arms in the U. S. House Of Representatives, to help persuade the Secretary of the Treasury to authorize the printing of some 5000 impressions of each of the 22 bond subjects. The work on this order began in early 1869.

In March of 1869, Congress passed a law stating that "no work shall be done in the engraving and printing bureau for private parties". Coupled with this was an attempt by the private bank-note companies to discredit Spencer M. Clark, Chief of the National Currency Bureau. His ouster was not well-received by the employees of the Bureau. The unhappiness was about to manifest itself.Heath, through Ordway, had paid $10,000.00 for the first shipment of plates and in due course 13 cartons arrived in Boston. When they were opened, it was clear that someone had sabotaged the order.It is apparent that the employees of the Bureau had vented their anger at the way Clark had been treated and also toward the politicians who passed out favors to people like Heath. The sabotage explains why so few copies of the 1869 "American Bond Detector" exist today.

Heath was unable to salvage but a small number of total sets of bond impressions and the government would not print replacements for him.

THE 1871 "AMERICAN BOND DETECTOR"

The two-volume set that is being offered in this sale is a bit of an anomaly. Since Heath did not have many complete sets of plates of bonds, why did he print a new title page in 1871? We might surmise that Heath expected the government to resume printing these bond impressions and that he believed that he would be able to continue assembling these books. The government, however,refused all of Heath's requests for new bond plates or even compensation for his loss. We believe that this set being offered here is the "only one known" and quite possibly unique. We have explored all of the major collections to find a duplicate to no avail.You are bidding for the two volumes as a complete set.
